Subject: RE: Draft agenda

I would start with Ben's introduction of the importance of active involvement/role of private sector board members as being the reason we've called them there today. (I think business types like the punchline first, then the details). Then after your PSI bit you can get into the details of next steps and what to expect in terms of crime commission support for fundraisers, etc. I would think that in this portion you'd want to introduce Linda Russell as someone who will be working directly with them to support and help organize their fundraising gatherings and ensure appropriate follow-up afterwards.
